Supportive Employer Program – Application Requirements

The new Supportive Employer Program recognises those employers and businesses that go above and beyond to support their Australian Defence Force reservist employees and their role in serving Defence's mission in advancing Australia's national interests.

Organisations and employers can apply to join the program by completing and submitting an application form (see below for details). The program is open to organisations of all shapes and sizes and you do not have to currently employ ADF reservists to be a part of the program.

Public Sector applications will be considered at departmental level and private sector at organisational level.

What do you need to complete your organisations application?
